

New Albemarle Garden Club Awards

1999 - Golden Trowel Award given to a member of the Horticulture Committee for their enthusiasm and participation in the club's many challenging horticulture projects.

2009 - The Conservation Matters "Green Award" is given to an active or sustaining member who exemplifies the spirit of conservation and inspires members to understand the vital role each member can and does play in the success of conservation.

2009 - Club Flower Show Award presented to the member with the most total points earned from entering in flower shows. The point system is part of general flower show guidelines.

2010 - The Peggy Sydnor Award may be awarded at the Annual Meeting to a member who, over a period of time, has demonstrated a notably cooperative spirit and consistent willingness to contribute her talents and abilities to club projects and activities. The member works without fanfare, reliably and capably. This award is named in memory of one such exemplary member.

2019 - Club Flower Show Awards presented by division - Horticulture, Floral Design and Photography. (change from 2009)

2022 - The Flower Show Queen Award recognizes a member who participates in flower shows with a helping hand and joyful heart.
